Monday brought out the usual elec-on day crowds and Main street in the tion day crowds and Main street in the vicinity of Church was a pretty busy place. Teams and automobiles were dashing back and forth all day long and during the closing hours of the afternoon were particularly active. Republican headquarters were established early in E. M. Young's place on Church street, democratic headquarters in Fred Green's place, a little further up the street, and prohibition headquarters in the vestry ow the Methodist church dist church .

Considerable activity was shown in license circles, and it is again demon-strated that Willimantic is a hard town to swing to the dry column. The no license advocates worked hard and had the license workers not been un-isually active the margin would have een materially cut down.

There was very little evidence of iquor, and this is an indication that the corrupt practices act is being effi-ciently carried out and that its intent is good. The rolls opened in the old town building at 9 o'clock and closed at 5 o'clock. There were a good many scratches and the hour of the final re-sult was late in arriving.

The first vote counted was the wom'en's ballots, which was completed shortly after 6 o'clock, and showed that there had been 193 republican ballots cost with him. inst there had been 10s republican ballots east with but a single scratch, and 54 democratic ballots with 28 scratches. The total vote, including the prohibition ballots, was 176.
